

BELLE VUE PRIMARY SCHOOL

Universal Children's Day!

Universal Children's Day

25 November 2016

The day was linked to Article 31 "All children have the right to relax and play," which is often difficult at school except at play time.

Universal Children's Day is celebrated on 20th November to promote international togetherness and awareness world wide. For this year, in New York over 200 writers and poets joined a global campaign to write "Tiny Stories" of seven to highlight Universal Children's day.

The Sneetches clip showed how to play and make friends with everyone

Parents and the Global Club helping KS1 children with their seven line stories

Belle Vue's Global Club invite parents and children from classes in KS1 to help celebrate the day.

They learnt about Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, a story writer from Nigeria, and read her seven line story, "I want every child to go to bed well fed"

Chimamanda 's Seven Line Story

- ▶ I want every child to go to sleep well-fed
- ▶ And not worry about the next meal
- ▶ Or the next.
- ▶ I want every child to have primary healthcare.
- ▶ I want every child to be protected by adults.
- ▶ And to take for granted the kindness of adults
- ▶ And never to be treated like adults

Children writing their story lines for the seven line poems

Balloons for ALL

The Global Club wore Blue T Shirts to represent UNICEF and gave every child a blue balloon to take home so that they could talk about Universal Children's Day at home.

Pam Copeland talking about UCD with parents

Children relaxing and playing with new friends

